A Georgian landmark for modern love

Few wedding venues offer the grandeur, history and sense of occasion found at Buxton Crescent.

Originally commissioned by the Fifth Duke of Devonshire and completed in 1789, this iconic Grade I-listed landmark has been welcoming guests for more than two centuries. Today, beautifully restored and part of the Champneys collection, it combines timeless architecture with luxurious hospitality and wellness experiences.

Behind its elegant honey-stone façade lies a collection of remarkable spaces, from the magnificent Assembly Room with its intricately painted ceiling crowned with sparkling chandeliers and framed by grand, fluted pillars, to intimate rooms designed for unforgettable moments with family and friends.

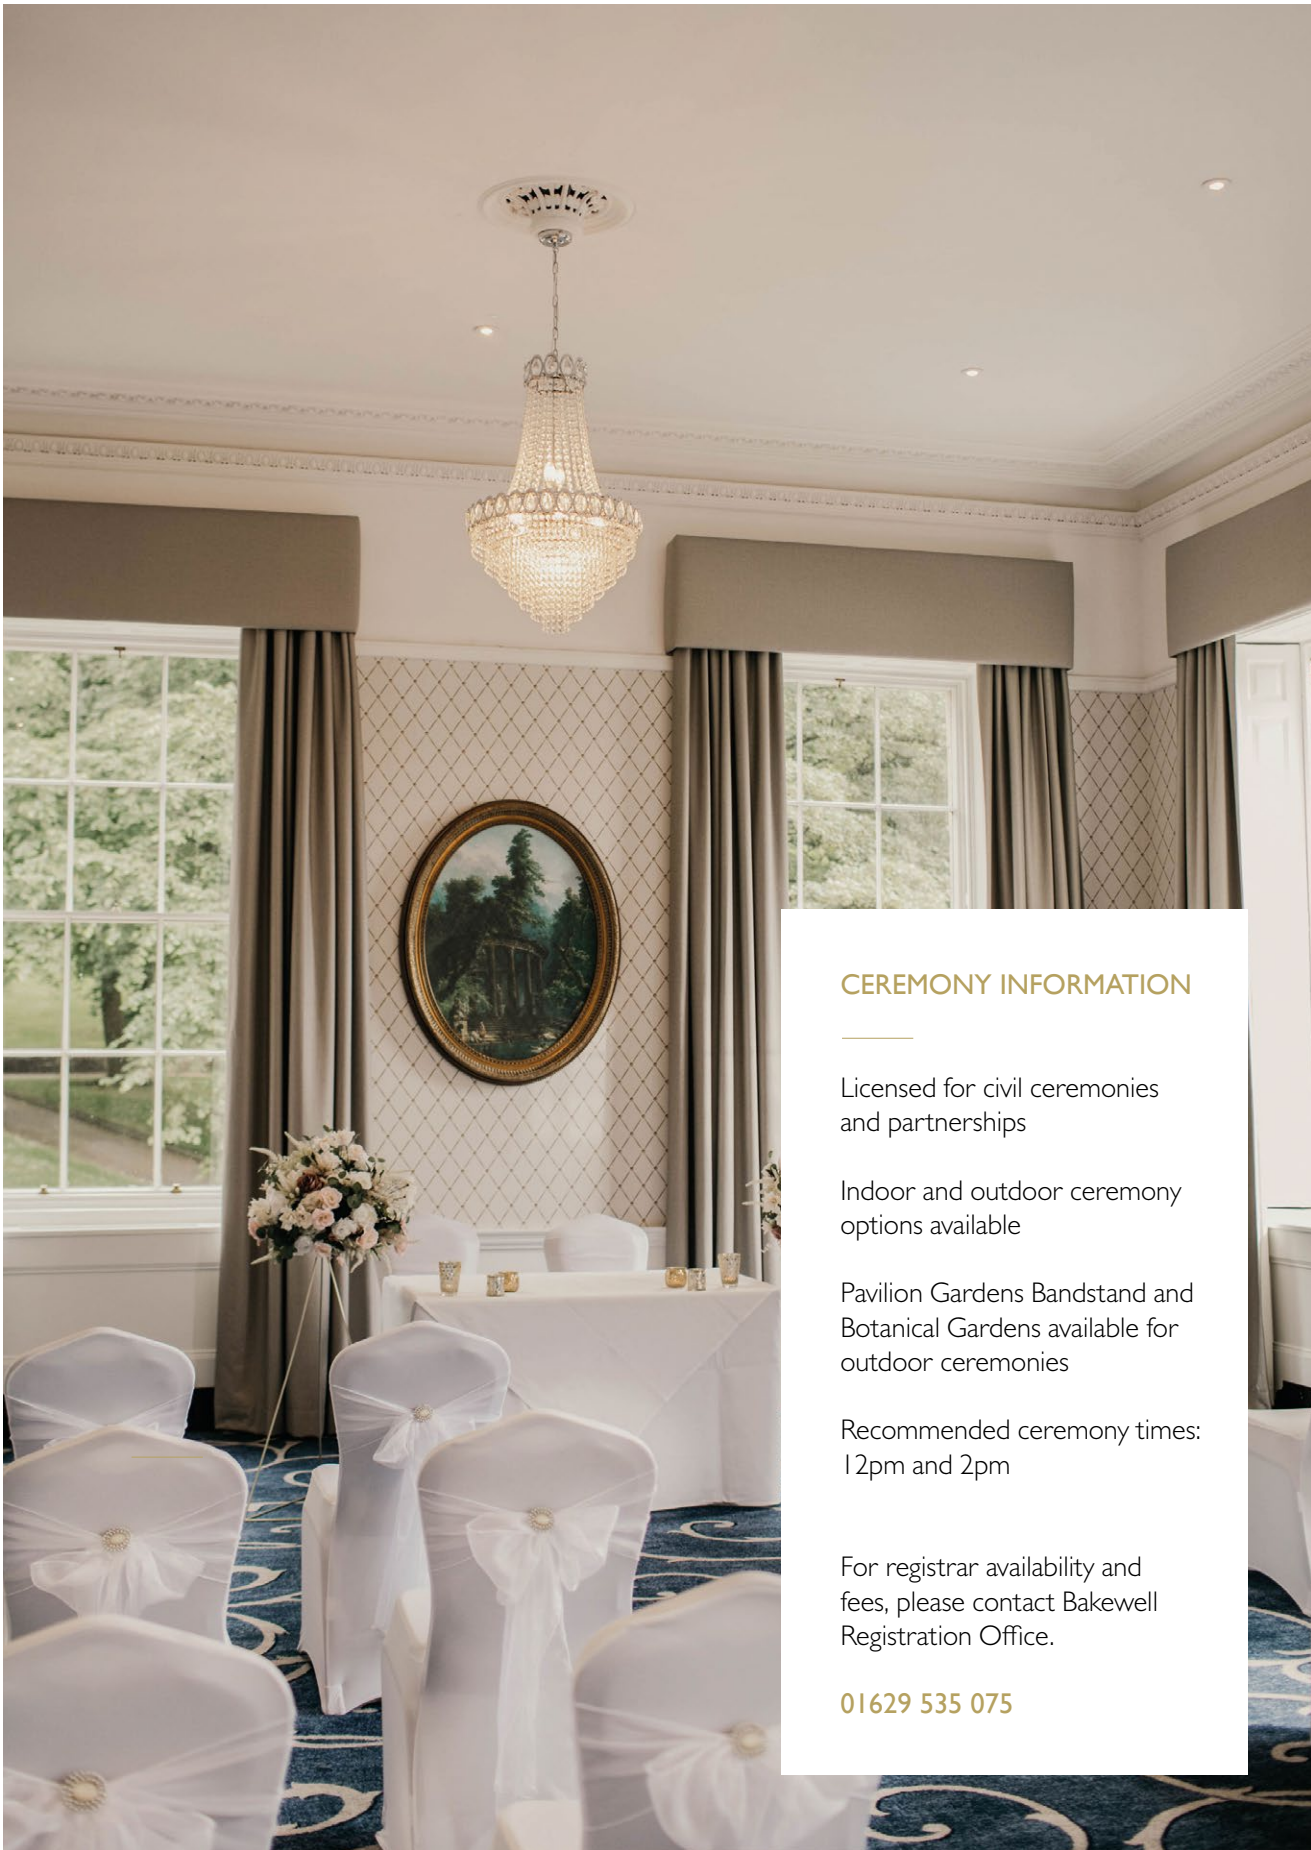

Every detail has been carefully restored to honour the building's rich heritage while providing a contemporary setting for celebrations.

Arrange a private showround and discover Buxton Crescent for yourself.
